

THE VENTOTENE LIGHTHOUSE A Federalist Journal for World Citizenship

Contributors April 1, 2020 by Antonio Longo

Anyone can contribute to “The Ventotene Lighthouse”. The articles submitted must naturally be relevant to our cultural undertaking, as described in the Topics: Humanity - Global Changes - Unity in Diversity - Institutions - Initiatives & Events. They must respect our submission guidelines: the language is English, the standard length per article is 1,000 words; for a policy brief 2,000-3,000 words; for a policy paper 4,000-5,000 words. The text should be submitted to email: info@theventotenelighthouse.eu

List of contributors

Guido Montani, former president of the European Federalist Movement in Italy and an honorary member of the Union of European Federalists. In 1987 he founded the Altiero Spinelli Institute in Ventotene and in 2020 The Ventotene Lighthouse, a Federalist Journal for World Citizenship

Antonio Longo, Founder and Editor of The Ventotene Lighthouse, a Federalist Journal for World Citizenship, Member of the Federal Committee of Movimento Federalista Europeo, former Editor of L'Unità Europea - journal of Movimento Federalista Europeo

Camilla Lòpez Badra, Executive Director of Democracia Global

Joseph Preston Baratta, professor emeritus at Worcester State University in Massachusetts. He reopened the World Federalist office in New York in 1985.

Peter Davidse, Member of World Federalist Movement

Roberta De Monticelli - Chair of Philosophy of Personhood, San Raffaele University, Milan

Davide Giamborino, Financial and Economic Analyst at a Fintech company

Sven Giegold, Member of the European Parliament, financial and economic policy spokesperson of the Greens/EFA group

Tawanda Hondora, Executive Director of the World Federalist Movement

Domenico Moro, member of the Board of Directors of the Centro Studi sul Federalismo of Turin, of the European Federalist Movement and the World Federalist Movement.

Giulio Peroni , Associate Professor of International Law - University of Milan